AWAL (Around the World in a Lifetime)

The Foreign Service Youth Foundation sponsors AWAL for teens from 13 to 18, or middle school through high school. The teens in the Washington, DC, area are able to participate in these activities:

- ♦ Meet once a month in a family's home for an informal evening support group.
- ♦ Plan one social activity per month, such as a trip to an amusement or water park, gathering at a restaurant, bowling, ice skating, or seasonal activity like holiday parties.
- ♦ Meet once a month in the FLO offices to write their newsletter: Wings of AWAL.
- ♦ Periodic re-entry programs, picnics, or potluck dinners for new members; overnight or day programs for transition training.

Globe Trotters

The Globe Trotters group is for children between the ages of 9 and 12. An adult parent volunteer and a program director meet with the group. Their activities include:

- ♦ Meeting about once a month for an educational or social gathering. These gatherings have included picnics and dinosaur fossil hunting on the Maryland shore, ice-skating, amusement or water parks, and other activities.
- ♦ Meeting once every three months to produce their newsletter: Here, There, and Everywhere.
